

MORE ABOUT JOSIE

Josie is a professional in the hospitality industry who brings her passion for food & beverage to all she does. After growing up in Chicago she moved to Montana in 2011 to attend Montana State and get her degree in Hospitality. Josie got her foot in the industry by working at the esteemed Yellowstone Club and has extensive experience in the restaurant industry in Bozeman. She has brought this experience to catering for the past two years and looks forward to creating memorable experiences wherever she goes.

As a Montana-based adventurer and nature enthusiast Josie loves to explore the great outdoors with her two adorable hound dogs, Badger and Yadi. On the weekends you'll find her cooking up a storm for family and friends and sipping on the occasional good glass of wine.
